

FAMILY FAIR

SATURDAY & SUNDAY, OCTOBER 21 & 22, 10am - 4pm
At the Marin Center Exhibit Hall, San Rafael, CA

PHOTOS: JANMANGAN

- Explore science, nature, and the arts through hands-on experiential education activities led by some of the Bay Area's leading nature-inspired educators!
- Meet live owls from the Hungry Owl Project
- Take a guided nature walk provided by Vida Verde
- Learn about animal tracks and create your own plaster animal print with Vilda Nature
- Create your own garden designs, make bird feeders and pollinator seed balls with Daily Acts
- Make art with natural items facilitated by Lauren Elder
- Learn about watersheds through hands-on activities from the National Oceanic & Atmospheric Administration's Ocean Guardian Schools
- Learn Pollution Solutions, explore nature artifacts, find a fossil, and make animal masks with the Point Bonita YMCA
- Have your face painted by "Honeybee" Nutmeg Baker and Kristin Baker
- Engage in nature-based art with Garden Art Studio After School Program
- Learn about green science from local credentialed teachers

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC!

The Bioneers Conference is a Family Friendly event. Family Fair activities are free to the public, but do not include access to other regular conference keynotes, panels, and workshops.

conference.bioneers.org/family-fair